Opening
October 11, 2013 at 6:00 p.m.

An exhibit curated by Simona Segre Reinach in collaboration with students in the BA and MA degree program in Fashion at the University of Bologna, Rimini Campus.

The exhibition investigates the aesthetic, cultural and communicative innovations of Italian Fashion and Japanese Fashion as two representative fashion systems throughout the '80s and the '90s. Drawn from the Archivi di Ricerca Mazzini di Massa Lombarda, a selection of signature outfits showcases the prêt-à-porter by Italian designers including Armani, Versace, Ferré, Moschino, Coveri as well as the radical fashion by Japanese designers in Paris, such as Miyake, Kawakubo and Yamamoto.

The opening will feature Akiko Fukai, Director and Chief Curator of the Kyoto Costume Institute, Tamami Suoh, Curator of the Kyoto Costume Institute, and Attilio Mazzini, in conversation with the fashion designer Romeo Gigli.

Coordinator: Antonio Mancinelli
